

Riddles on planet earth by 6eC

I am big. I love water. I'm blue. My name begins by letter O. The rivers flow in me. Who am I?
(OCEAN)

Everyday we throw away hundreds of trees in paper and cards and we destroy forest. What problem is it? (DEFORESTATION)

I am a damage for the environment. I make ice cap melt. I'm more important because of humans' activities. What problem am I? (GLOBAL WARMING)

They are polluted. Animals die because of pollution in them. They rise because of the melting ice caps. They are useful for planet earth. What are they?(SEAS AND OCEANS)

I live in oceans. I can swim. I die because I mistake plastic bags with jelly fish; I'm an animal. Who am I? (Turtles)

I make odors and I'm a mountain of waste. I'm not always opened. I'm dirty and ugly. Who am I?
(a rubbish dump)

I'm something that produces oxygen. People cut me to make paper. What am I? (Tree)

I move crabs and fish. I collect shells. I destroy sand castles on the beach. I make waves. Who am I? (The SEA)

They are transparent or white. People throw a lot of them. They pollute the environment. What are they? (PLASTIC BAGS)

I have a shell. I live in seas or oceans; I'm a marine animal. I mistake jelly fish with plastic bags. Who am I? (Turtle)

It is a verb. When it is dirty, just do it! (CLEAN)

I have a lot of trees. I produce a lot of oxygen. If you destroy me it's not good for environment and earth. What am I? (Forest)

I melt if it's hot. I'm too fat to fit in a tea cup. Bears frequent me. I am freezing. What am I? (ice cap)

I produce oxygen. I clean the air. I suffer from deforestation. What am I? (TREE)